

A stylized map showing the route of the Suez Canal against a dark background. The route is depicted as a thick, light-colored line that starts at a location pin labeled "Cairo" in the upper left, curves around the northern shore of the canal, passes through the Suez Canal itself, and ends at a location pin labeled "Ras Sedr" in the lower right. The map also includes labels for "Ain Sokhna" and "Suez" along the canal's length. The landmasses are shaded in a light tan color.
